

Privacy statement

The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation is responsible for processing personal data as shown in this privacy statement.

Contact information:

Ahoy Rotterdam

Postbus 5106

3008 AC Rotterdam

<http://www.wpfgrotterdam2021.com>

Personal data we process

The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation processes your personal data because you make use of our services and/or because you have provided us with the data yourself.

Below is a summary of the personal data that we process:

- First and last name
- Address details
- Telephone number
- E-mail address
- Visual material

Special and/or sensitive personal data we process

It is not the intention of our website and/or services to collect data about visitors to the website who are younger than 16 years old, unless they have permission from their parent or guardian. However, we cannot check whether a visitor is older than 16. So we recommend that parents get involved in their children's online activities, to prevent data being collected about children without parental permission. If you are of the opinion that we have collected data about a minor without this permission, please contact us via info@wpfgrotterdam2021.com and we will remove the information.

The aim and rationale of our processing of personal data

The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation processes your personal data for the following purposes:

- Processing your payment
- Sending our newsletter and/or advertising folder
- Phoning or e-mailing you if it is necessary for carrying out our services
- Informing you about changes to our products and services

No automated decision-making

The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation does not take decisions based on automated processing on matters that could have consequences (significant or otherwise) for people. This relates to decisions taken by computer programs or systems, without a person being involved (for instance, a World Police and Fire Games employee).

How long we hold personal data

The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation does not hold your personal data any longer than strictly necessary to realize the objectives for which your data is collected. Your data is not held for longer than a year if no agreement has been reached with you.

Sharing personal data with third parties

The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation only provides data to third parties if it is necessary for fulfilling our agreement with you or to comply with a statutory obligation.

Cookies, or similar techniques, which we use

The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation uses analytical, technical and functional cookies. A cookie is a small text file that is saved to your computer, tablet or smartphone the first time you visit this website. On the website of the World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation, general data is kept about the visit, including the IP address of your computer and the time of retrieval, and data that your browser sends. This data is used to analyze visit and click behavior on the website. The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation uses this information to improve the functioning of the website. The data is anonymized as much as possible and is not shared with third parties.

Google Analytics

The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation uses Google Analytics to record how visitors use the website. The information obtained in this way, including the address of your computer (IP address), is transferred to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Read Google's privacy policy for more information. You will also find the Google Analytics privacy policy here.

Google uses this information to keep track of how our website is being used, so that it can provide reports about the website to the World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation.

Google can share this information with third parties in the event that Google is legally obliged to do so, or if these parties process the information on behalf of Google. The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation has no influence on this.

The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation has not given Google permission to use Analytics information obtained via the World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation for other Google services.

You can opt out of cookies by setting up your internet browser in such a way that it no longer saves cookies. In addition, you can delete all information saved earlier via the settings of your browser.

Social Media

We would like to make it as easy as possible for you to share messages on this website, so we have provided a number of social media buttons. The various social media channels use code, which places cookies via the site. These social media channels collect information they can obtain via the cookies. Most social media channels will adhere to the Safe Harbor principles.

We use the buttons of the following social media channels: Facebook, Instagram and Twitter. Read the privacy statements of the respective social media channels to find out what they do with the information collected.

Visual material

At the public and private events, film and photo images may be made for activities that include promotion on social media. If there are reasonable objections to the published visual material, it is possible to contact us. The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation reserves the right to disregard the request to remove the image(s) if it concerns general action images or images showing the atmosphere where the person in question does not take a central position and is not clearly recognizable, or if the person has clearly posed for the photo.

Viewing, amending or removing data

You have the right to view, correct or remove your personal data. Additionally, you have the right to withdraw any permission given for processing data or to make an objection to the processing of your personal data by the World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation and you have the right to data portability. This means that you can submit a request to us to transfer the personal data we hold about you in a computer file to yourself or to another organization you name.

You can submit a request to view, correct, remove or transfer your personal data or a request to withdraw your permission for processing your personal data by sending an e-mail to info@wpfgrotterdam2021.com.

In order to ensure that the request to view the data has been submitted by you personally, we will ask you to send a copy of your identity document with your request. In this copy, please blacken out your passport photo, MRZ (machine readable zone, the strip containing numbers at the bottom of the passport), passport number and Citizen Service Number (BSN). This is to protect your privacy. We will respond to your request as quickly as possible, but at any rate within four weeks.

The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation would also like to draw your attention to the option to submit a complaint to the national data protection supervisor, the Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens. You can do that via the following link: <https://autoriteitpersoonsgegevens.nl/nl/contact-met-de-autoriteit-persoonsgegevens/tip-ons>

How we secure personal data

The World Police & Fire Games Rotterdam 2021 Foundation takes the protection of your data seriously and takes appropriate measures to combat misuse, loss, unauthorized access, undesirable publication and improper amendment. If you have the impression that your data is not properly secured or there are indications of misuse, please contact us via info@wpfgrotterdam2021.com